GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Conditions of Acceptance of Copy

FAILURE to comply with any of the following conditions will result in the rejection of copy, and no responsibility can be accepted if such rejection should affect any date contained in such copy or any requirement of publication on a specific date.

Persons drafting any kind of notices are strongly advised to follow the guidance offered in—

- (a) the Instructions Relating to the Drafting and Typing of Legislation (Attorney-General's Circular 1 of 1978); and
- (b) the Manual of Style for the Drafting and Preparation of copy published by Printflow (Private) Limited; which two booklets are intended for complementary use.

In these conditions, other than where a particular kind of copy is specified, "copy" means copy for all matter contained in the Gazette itself and for subsidiary legislation issued as supplements to the Gazette.

1. (1) Other than by prior arrangements, only original typing is accepted.

(2) Carbon-copies are not normally acceptable, other than in cases where the original typing has to be legally retained, elsewhere, as, for example, in the case of a proclamation.

(3) Computer print-outs are not accepted automatically, as discussion may be necessary with regard to the extra time and costs involved.

2. (1) All copy must be clear and legible, and there must be double or one and a half spacing between the lines.

(2) Any corrections or alterations made by the originator, must be clearly effected in blue or black ink, using editorial marks—not proof-reader's marks:

Provided that any copy containing extensive alterations will be rejected.

3. (1) Copy must appear on one side only of each sheet of paper.

(2) Except as is provided in subsection (2) of section 8, paper must not exceed 210 millimetres in width.

(3) If copy comprises two or more sheets of paper, all sheets must be numbered consecutively, in arabic figures, preferably in the top right-hand corner.

(4) Where any matter is added after the copy has been prepared, and such additional matter results in one or more sheets being inserted between those already numbered, all sheets must be renumbered from there onwards—not, for instance 7, 7b, 8, et cetera.

4. Photographic copy or copy produced on a duplicating machine may be accepted if it is abundantly clear.

5. (1) Should any copy—

- (a) exceed 10 pages of double-spaced typing on size A4 paper; or
- (b) contain tabular or other matter which involves complicated setting; it will be classed as "lengthy" copy, and will be required to be submitted not less than 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which it is to be published.

(2) Lengthy copy may be accepted at less than 21 days' notice if—

- (a) the work involved is of a straight forward and non-tabular nature; and
- (b) the total volume of work on hand for the time being permits its acceptance.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these conditions, any copy—

- (a) which is of national importance, and which is originated as a matter of urgent necessity, may, by prior arrangement, be accepted late for the current week;
- (b) may, due to shortage of staff or to technical considerations, be delayed until conditions permit its processing.

7. Copy must not be submitted as part of a letter or a requisition. It must appear on a separate sheet of paper, on which there is no instruction or other extraneous matter.

8. (1) In cases where notices have to be published in tabular form, copy must be drafted exactly as it is to appear. If printed forms for any such notices are unavailable, advertisers must prepare their own forms. While it is not necessary to include the preamble, the box-headings must be there, and, where applicable, the number of the form; for example, "Insolvency Regulations—Form 3".

(2) In the case of copy for tabular notices, the provision of subsection (2) of section 3 does not apply.

9. Copy for all advertisements, whether sent by post or delivered by hand, must be accompanied by a requisition or a letter which clearly sets out—

- (a) the name and address of the advertiser; and
- (b) the debtor's code number, if any; and
- (c) the required date or dates of publication.

10. If a typographical error occurs in the Gazette, it is rectified as soon as possible by a correcting notice without charge to the ministry or department concerned, subject to the following conditions—

- (a) that such error is reported to the editor within three months from the date of publication; and

- (b) that the relevant copy, upon re-examination, is proved to be abundantly clear; and
 (c) that the correction of such error is legally necessary.

(2) If a drafting error is not detected before publication, the originating ministry or department is required to draft its own correcting notice, take it to the Attorney-General for vetting and pay for such notice to be published.

(3) For the removal of doubt—

- (a) a typographical error is made by a typographer;
 (b) a typist's error is classed as a drafting error by reason of the fact that the officer responsible for drafting failed to check the typist's work.

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Submission of Copy for Government Gazette Statutory Instruments and Notices

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that it is necessary to draw attention to the "Conditions for Acceptance of Copy", which appears in every issue of the Gazette; and particularly the need to submit lengthy copy, in the case of Statutory Instruments, at least 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which the notice is to be published.

During the past few months or so there have been many cases where urgent copy for subsidiary legislation, which requires the signature of the President or a minister to give it effect, and which is of national importance, has been sent in for publication in the Gazette after closing-time. Whilst I acknowledge that it is the duty of Printflow (Private) Limited to give certain notices special treatment, I am, however, of the view that a Gazette Extraordinary has tended to be a must rather than a matter of priority in respect of unwarranted delays of urgent copy.

While every effort will continue to be made to publish Extraordinaries on the required dates, copy must be submitted timeously so that it can be programmed into the printing-work-flow as soon as it is available.

H. MATINGWINA,
Gazette Editor.

Extradition Treaty with Namibia, 2021

IT is hereby notified that the Minister of Home Affairs and Cultural Heritage has, in terms of section 3(3) of the Extradition Treaty Act [Chapter 9:08], made the following Treaty: —

1. This Treaty may be cited as the Extradition Treaty with Namibia, 2021.

2. This Extradition Treaty was entered into with the Republic of Namibia on the 20th of July, 2006, and shall come into effect from the day of its publication.

3. The Extradition Treaty set out in the Schedule shall have force of law subject to the provisions of the Act.

SCHEDULE

TREATY BETWEEN THE REPUBLIC OF ZIMBABWE AND THE REPUBLIC OF NAMIBIA ON EXTRADITION

PREAMBLE

The Republic of Namibia and the Republic of Zimbabwe (hereafter referred to as “the Parties”);

RECOGNISING the principles of sovereignty equality and territorial integrity of all States;

DESIRING to make more effective their cooperation in the prevention and suppression of crime by concluding the Treaty on Extradition;

AFFIRMING their respect for each other’s legal system and judicial institutions;

Have agreed as follows —

ARTICLE 1

Obligation to Extradite

The Parties agree to extradite to each other, upon request and in accordance with the provisions of Part 1 of this Treaty and subject to their respective laws relating to extradition, any person who is wanted in the territory of the requesting Party for prosecution for an extraditable offence or for the imposition or enforcement of a sentence in respect of a person who fled after he or she was sentenced by a competent court of law.

Extradition Treaty with Namibia, 2021

ARTICLE 2

Extraditable Offence

1. For the purpose of this Treaty, extraditable offences are offences, which are punishable under the laws of both Parties by imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty for a maximum period of at least one year or by a more severe penalty.
2. Where the request for extradition relates to a person who is wanted for the enforcement of a sentence of imprisonment or other deprivation of liberty imposed by a court of the requesting Party for any extraditable offence, extradition shall be granted only if a period of at least six months of the sentence remains to be served.
3. In determining whether an offence is an offence punishable under the laws of both Parties, it shall not matter whether—
 - (a) the laws of the Parties place the acts or omissions constituting the offence within the same category of offence or denominate the offence by the same terminology;
 - (b) under the laws of the Parties the constituent elements of the offence differ, it being understood that the totality of the conduct as presented by the requesting Party shall be taken into account.
4. Where extradition of a person is sought for an offence against a law relating to taxation, customs duties, exchange control or other revenue matters, extradition may not be refused on the ground that the law of the requested Party does not impose the same kind of tax or duty or does not contain a tax, customs duty, or exchange regulation of the same kind as the law of the requesting Party.
5. If the request for extradition includes several separate offences each of which is punishable under the laws of both Parties, but some of which do not fulfil the other conditions set out in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article, the requested Party may grant extradition for latter offences provided that the person is to be extradited for at least one extraditable offence.

ARTICLE 3

Mandatory Refusal of Extradition

1. Extradition shall not be granted in any of the following circumstances —
 - (a) if the offence for which extradition is requested is regarded by the executive authority in the Requested State as an offence of a political character;
 - (b) if there has been a final judgment rendered against the person claimed in the Requested State in respect of the offence or offences for which the person's extradition is requested;

S.I. 226 of 2021

- (c) if the competent authorities of the Requested State have decided either not to institute or to terminate proceedings against the person for the offence or offences in respect of which extradition is requested;
 - (d) if the person whose extradition is requested has, under the law of either Party, become immune for any reason from prosecution or punishment for the offence or offences for which his or her extradition is sought, including lapse of time or amnesty;
 - (e) if the Requested State had substantial grounds for believing that the request for extradition has been made for the purpose of prosecuting or punishing a person on account of that person's race, religion, nationality, political opinion, sex or status, or that person's position may be prejudiced for any of those reasons;
 - (f) if the offence for which extradition is requested is an offence under military law, which is not also an offence under criminal law;
 - (g) if there is insufficient proof, according to the evidentiary standards of the Requested State, that the person whose extradition is requested is a party to the offence;
 - (h) if the person whose extradition is requested has been or would be subjected in the Requesting State to torture or cruel, inhuman or degrading punishment or if that person has not received or would not receive the minimum guarantees in criminal proceedings, as contained in Article 14 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights; unless the Requesting State guarantees that the fugitive shall be afforded the aforesaid guarantees;
 - (i) if the person will be or may be liable to a death penalty or any other type of punishment that is not applied in the Requested State if he or she is so returned, unless the Requesting State guarantees that the death penalty or such other type of punishment will not be imposed or, if imposed, will not be carried out.
2. For the purpose of the application of paragraph 1(a) of this Article, reference to a political offence shall not include the following—
- (a) conduct that constitutes an offence mentioned in a multilateral agreement or scheme to which the Republic of Zimbabwe and the Republic of Namibia are parties and are obliged to extradite the person or submit the matter to appropriate authorities for prosecution;
 - (b) murder;
 - (c) rape or sexual assault;
 - (d) inflicting serious bodily harm or causing substantial property damage;
 - (e) kidnapping, abduction, hostage taking or extortion;

Extradition Treaty with Namibia, 2021

- (f) unlawfully using or possessing explosives, firearms, incendiaries, devices or substances in circumstances in which human life is likely to be endangered or serious bodily harm or substantial property damage is likely to be caused;
